Overview

The National (Bozhou) Traditional Chinese Medicine Trade Fair dating from 1985 has successfully run 29 years and the International (Bozhou) Traditional Chinese Medicine Exposition has been successively held 8 years since 2006, both of which have won high praise from those working in the field of TCM and have been one of the most influential expositions both in China and abroad. The Expo this year includes 11 activities covering economy and trade, academic exchange and culture sections. The Organizing Committee will supply high quality service in accordance with the requirements of “specialization, market-orientation, and standardization” and try our best to make the “TCM Expo 2015” a platform for attracting investment, trade, international cooperation and academic exchange.

International Traditional Chinese Medicine Expo will provide a great platform for governments, industry associations and business corporations to expand all-around, high-level and multi-field exchanges and collaboration internationally. As Co-organizer of this Expo, Australia International Trade Associates & Associates (AITA & Associates) and New Zealand International Exchange Center (NZIEC) are entitled to promote international communication and exchange in pacific region, especially with Australia and New Zealand. This exposition will be an opportunity for you to expand your presence in the international marketplace and meet potential business partners.
